Dear Harvard College Students,

We are writing to let you know that we have decided to increase the presence of police and security on campus during the coming days, as many students move out of their residences and as Commencement approaches. It seems prudent that we all be especially vigilant in light of the extraordinary events of earlier this week. In addition to more frequent patrols, police and security guards may from time to time ask students or others to present IDs. We ask that you cooperate with this effort. In addition, especially with people moving out of dorms, care should be taken not to prop doors open or to allow people to “piggyback” into Harvard buildings, especially student residences. Many thanks for your extra vigilance, and please report any suspicious activity to HUPD at 495-1212.

We also encourage you to take this opportunity, if you have not already done so, to register for the University’s “MessageMe” system, so you can be reached with text messages when circumstances warrant. You may register at <https://messagememe.harvard.edu/>.

Sincerely yours,

Evelynn Hammonds
