

Germanic Languages and Literatures: German Cultural Studies

Honors Track (12 half courses)

Required courses

A 60-level German course, German 193

or its equivalent

---

4 additional numbered half courses in German:

German 50a or 50b

---

3 100-200 level German courses*

{

---

---

---

A program of 4 additional half courses in the following fields (with sufficient focus on the German aspect of the field)**

{

---

---

---

---

Tutorials

Sophomore: German 97

Senior: German 99 (2 terms), honors thesis

*One each from 3 of the following groups:

Medieval

Baroque

18th Century

19th Century

20th Century

**These courses must be coordinated into a coherent but flexible program of study. The fields include: Economics, Film/VES, Folklore & Mythology, Government, History, History of Art & Architecture, History of Science, Linguistics, Literature, Music, Philosophy, Psychology, Social Studies, Comparative Study of Religion, Studies of Women, Gender & Sexuality.

NOTE: The concentration is designed to make it possible to begin with Elementary German (German A or Bab) in the freshman year and to complete the concentration without difficulty.